*Blessed are all who fear the Lord,
who walk in obedience to him*

Psalm 128:1

To fear the Lord is not to be afraid of him, but to have a deep sense of awe for Him as the holy and perfect Triune God, who calls us as children. We come in obedience to that call and worship him as he welcomes us to praise his name together.

This morning our series on the parables of Jesus continues as we look at a very short parable— “The Friend at Midnight” as found in Luke 11:1-13. Next week, we will read about The Great Banquet from Luke 14:15-24.

Today we will also welcome Allison (Allie) Kornovich to our fellowship. She will be making profession of faith and become a member of Pease CRC, and we are blessed to have her do so. In addition, we are pleased to have Jim Kosloski from the Gideons with us this morning. He will be taking some time to share with us about their work and ministry.

After the service you are welcome to join Pastor Michael in the Fireside Room for a time of questions and answers regarding the decisions that Synod made last month. You are free to come and go as your schedule allows.

We give thanks to God that our youth group had a good week of serving and a safe trip back home from Lynden, WA. We will look forward to hearing more about their trip during our SERVE Sunday Service on July 24th. Please plan to be here for that special time.

Our Church Family

We wish a happy birthday to Don Kiel, celebrating 81 years on Wednesday, July 13.

We continue to keep in prayer the many in our congregation who are fighting cancer. Please keep praying for Donna Angermeier, Alan Byker, Harlin Hanenburg, Irene Kok, and Joanne Vedders.

Please pray for the Administrative Team as they meet tomorrow night.

*“Thank you, brothers and sisters, for the beautiful flowers, cards, and words of care and concern following the passing of our grandmother and great-grandmother, Caroline Douma. Your support was (and is) a wonderful gift from God and we thank you for it. We are blessed to be a part of this community.” ~In Christian Love, Pastor Michael, Jessica, Zachary, Bethany, and Alex

Faith Practice Reflection & Discussion Starter-Practice of Remembering:

Read Joshua 4:1-7 and ponder or discuss the following questions. How have you, or how might you, use physical objects in your home or sanctuary to remind people of God’s work in your life? In what other ways do you, or does your church, help future generations remember the work of God? (For more on faith practices from Faith Formation Ministries, visit bit.ly/FaithPracticesProject.)
