"The Lord is my strength and my shield;
my heart trusts in him and he helps me.
My heart leaps for joy, and with my song I praise him."
Psalm 33:1

Indeed, the Lord is our strength and our shield. May your hearts leap for joy as you gather with his people to praise him for all his goodness to you.
Welcome to worship!

This morning Pastor Brad will continue his series with "Divine Selectiveness: God Controls". He will use the letter 'A' in the acronym F.A.I.T.H., with the topic of being adopted by God based on Ephesians 2:4-10. Next week we will look at John 10:14-30 to dig into "A Mission Accomplished: He Communicates". This will look at the theme of intentional atonement, represented by the 'I' in the F.A.I.T.H acronym.

Today, we have the blessing and privilege of coming to the table for the Lord's Supper to share in his forgiving grace. Anyone worshipping with us this morning who recognizes their sin, believes in Jesus Christ as their only and complete Savior from those sins, and now desires to live in joy and thanksgiving for that forgiveness is welcome to participate in this meal. May God, by his Holy Spirit, assure you of his forgiveness and salvation in it.

We are also excited for the opportunity to ordain Dylan Moorlag into his new role of Commissioned Pastor of Youth and Discipleship this morning! Please continue to pray for him and his family in his transition.

After our service, you are invited to stay for food and fellowship, as our Blue and Green Shepherding Groups have prepared a delicious brunch for everyone to enjoy!

The Pease Kids Choir is taking this morning off due to our Fellowship Meal! Kids K- 5th grade should meet next Sunday in the sanctuary after worship. Contact Kristin Bierma or Dort Brink with questions.

With three months left in our financial year, we reflect on your generosity and financial stewardship. We are grateful for your faithful support to our ministries. The deacons have noticed a decrease in tithes and offerings in 2026 while expenses have increased. As we begin the 2027 budgeting process, we will have to proceed with very thoughtful budgeting to accommodate these increases. We will work diligently towards responsible planning and faithful stewardship. We thank you for your gifts, whether large or small, as we move together in worship, serving, and caring for others. We trust God’s promise and share in our abundance.

The Deacons gratefully acknowledge the following September receipts:
Community Christian School- $929 Pease Scholarship Fund- $980
Perrin Werner, Missionary- $2,025 125 Campaign- $1,481.00
