"So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed."

John 8:36

WELCOME as we gather to glorify God in worship! Whether you are here as a guest, or have worshipped with us for months or years, we greet you in the name of the risen Lord Jesus Christ, who came to this earth, to suffer and die, so that we might be set free of our sin and guilt. We invite you to give yourself to God in worship today and in His service this week.

This morning Pastor Brad will continue his series with "A Mission Accomplished: He Communicates". He will use the letter 'I' in the acronym F.A.I.T.H., with the topic of intentional atonement based on John 10:14-30. Next week we will look at Ezekiel 36:26 to dig into "A Pursuing God: He Cleanses". This will look at what it means to be transformed by the Holy Spirit, represented by the 'T' in the F.A.I.T.H. acronym.

The Pease Kids Choir resumes this morning! Kids K- 5th grade should meet in the sanctuary after worship to practice from 10:45-11:15. Their first performance will be during our worship service on Sunday, November 15!

Pastor Brad's Discover Pease class will meet again this morning from 11:00-12:00 in the Fireside Room.

Please note that our church mailboxes have been reorganized, with many new names added! They are now in alphabetical order- if you can't find your name, please talk to Carrie.
